The chief event in monetary circles has been the refusal of the French sterling in London market, in order to

The Board of Trade returns for 1861 have been published, and are considered satisfactory, notwithstanding the cotton difficulty, and

Exports to Melbourne during January,

£200,000, against £241,000 in December;

decrease £41,000.

Military prices, goods, apparel, haberdashery, and blacking, considerably reduced.

Wool, rather heavy. Wines, very moderate.

Spices and bark, average quantities. Shipments since the 7th, £110,000.

Exports to Melbourne during the month rather less than previous one, with the exception of spices, which are heavy.

will not accept. No sale on account on 28th

February. Stock on hand—total, 45,315 per pound will occur next week, owing to the church, at half-past six o'clock. A public meeting will afterwards be held. Several clergymen and others are to address the assembly. The chair will be taken by Mr. N. D. Stenhouse.

CRICKET.—The Warwick Club held a meeting yesterday evening, at which eleven were selected to play matches with Maidland and Richmond for East of England. The game with Maidland at Ilkley was unavoidably postponed in consequence of several members being detained in Sydney by the departure of the English mail on the Tuesday.

KOOGERAN AND ROCKY POINT ROAD.—A meeting of persons interested in the repair and maintenance the Koggerah and Cook's River Road, was convened for Saturday morning at the Police Office, in order to appoint a road trust, and to take other steps for keeping this thoroughfare in a passable condition. Mr. Holt, M.L.A., spoke at some length on the importance of having good roads for traffic, and expressed readiness to contribute towards securing such advantage, the which he stated would be to mutual benefit of landholders and the public. Mr. Gannon drew attention to the fact that the meeting was illegal and informal, inasmuch as the necessary notice had not been given as required by the Act.

FARMER DIALOGUE—during the first part of the meeting, one of the labourers called on the farmer at Bullbrook to enquire if he could employ them, when the following dialogue took place.

FARMER—Is it rapin you want? Labourer—Yea.
FARMER—How much an acre are you giving? Farmer—12s.
Labourer—No more than 6d. per acre.
FARMER—You mean 6d. per acre?
Labourer—Yes.
FARMER—And Biddy will set you; or 16s., and you can have her too.
Labourer—No, no, I don't want her.
FARMER—What do you want?

HAY.—The Pastoral Times states that there is a scarcity of oaten hay in Deniliquin. As much as 18s. a cwt. is being asked for it now, and there is very little to be had even at that price.

THE SEASON.—The Monaro Mercury of the 9th inst. reports:—Since our last the weather has been so as to necessitate keeping up constant fires, and he reminded us that "hoary-headed winter" will soon be amongst us with all his rigour. Great quantities of rain have fallen; last Saturday especially it poured down from morning till very late at night; the rivers and creeks were swollen, and many of the fences near the Front Creek were carried away by the flood. Owing to the Numeralla and Bredbo Rivers rising, neither the mail nor gold escort left on Sunday evening, as is their wont to do.

THE LATE MR. HENRY DANGOAR.—The remains of the late Mr. Henry Dangar were interred within the church ground yesterday, in a vault prepared for their reception. Mr. Dangar has been a munificent contributor to the furnishing and embellishing of the Singleton church, having by his will left a large sum towards that object.—Singleton Times of Saturday.

IMPROVED PROSPECTS OF COOMA.—Few circumstances will contribute so much to the advancement of Cooma, as its having been fixed upon as the headquarters of the police in the M division, or Moreland district. The necessity for a better court-house was recently impressed upon the Government.

next thing will be suitable barracks for police, superintendent's residence, stabling, &c., expenditure of so much public money alone in district must prove highly beneficial; but it is the permanent establishment, and the market that will create, that we look for the greatest benefit those who at present have but a poor incentive to cultivate to any extent. —Monro Mercury.

MORTALITY AMONGST SHEEP.—A few days ago, a flock of sheep were being driven over the Devon Pinch, some eighty of the number were seized

MONSTER PEARS.—A pear, weighing 2 lbs. 2 oz., the produce of a tree on Mr. William Dale's estate has been exhibiting at Rose Dale. The tree has been planted seven years—this being its second year bearing. A quince—considered an average one—produce of the same estate, measured sixteen inches in girth.—Western Examiner.

St. PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, BLANNEY. This church was opened last Sabbath by the Rev. James Adam, who preached from Nehemiah 10, v. 1. The congregation was large.—Bathurst Free Press.

PRESENTATION TO THE REV. R. CALDWELL. The rev. gentleman has been presented with an address and a purse containing £28 12s. 3d., previous to his departure from the Fish River, to labour in Bathurst district. He has been for two years residing in the Wesleyan "minister in this locality, and leaves with the best wishes of all by whom he is known.

Meadow Flat, which is also in the circuit of labours, a purse of £15 was presented him.—Bath Times Correspondent.

DISCOVERY OF GOLD AT GLADSTONE.—Writing to Rockhampton Bulletin, from Gladstone, on the 21st ult. the correspondent of that journal remarks:—“New I am going to tell you that we have found a rich gold-field in our immediate vicinity, for the result of such an announcement would, I expect, very soon decimate our population; but this I can assure you, that some of the precious metal has been found very recently within a short distance of Gladstone, and that too, under very favourable circumstances.”

stances. For some time past it had been ascertained that a man who was shepherding on Mr. Boll's station had been in the habit (though I know not for how long) of soaring away gold to Sydney. This elicited inquiry and search, and the whereabouts was soon discovered. About ten days ago, two men residing here determined to know whether the report was true or false by actual experience. They started, and returned at the end of a week. They brought back with them between three and three ounces of very fine gold—one nugget weighing about an ounce and a quarter. The men, however, said they could do nothing more at present for want of water.

The reported diggings are situated on the Callopo Range—about twenty miles from Bell's station—two miles from the Callopo River. I hope, however, that none of you Rockhamptonites are so wantonly in common sense as to leave your homes and run down here, simply on what I have said. At present the affair is a complete uncertainty, the ground having been tested by two or three men for a few days. It is very important in a matter of this kind not to raise unground expectations. Alas! how many families have been plunged into dire distress merely by newspaper correspondents giving an uncertain sound.

DISCOVERY OF GOLD NEAR BATHURST.—Considerable excitement was occasioned in town yesterday, by a report to the effect that gold had been discovered within a mile of Bathurst. We are informed the finders have made application for a prospecting grant; and have lodged their claim with the gold commissioner to the Government reward, should the field turn out a payable one.—Bathurst Times of Saturday.

THE WESLEYAN BAZAAR.—Saturday's Bathurst Times reports that during the week there have been very large attendances at the Wesleyan bazaar. The receipts are very satisfactory, upwards of £500 having been realised during the week.

A DRUNKEN FROLIC.—Last evening, a man (name known) who was evidently the worse for liquor, found way into the court-house, and succeeded in entering private office of the clerk of the court. Whilst there he amused himself with tearing up all the papers could lay his hands on, and broke the bullet box in pieces endeavouring to force open one of the doors. Mr. L., who was in an adjoining room, hearing a noise went in, found him intently pursuing his work of destruction. He was immediately secured and handed over to the police for safe keeping. —Rockhampton Bulletin, Mar 10.

The same firm also sold privately Glenview Cottage, in Liverpool-street, near West-strade for £260.

Messrs. W. Dean and Co. offered for sale at auction, to-day, the cargo of sugar, rice, coffee, &c., Massulsi, from Batavia, on account of Messrs. Prost, Kohler, and Co. The attendance was large, and for some portions of the cargo there was spirited competition. The following rates were realised: White crystals, No. 20, at 24s. 6d.; Muscovado, £36 2s. 6d.; Rice, 21s. 6d. The most of the spices were withdrawn; coffee, 8s. to 9s. 6d. The other goods sold, such as candles, oilmen's stores, tobacco, &c., realised averages, Havana shaped Manila cigars, No. 1, (heavy weights), 54s.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.
NEW SAILING DIRECTIONS FOR PORT JACKSON.
BY THE LATE PILOT BOARD.

In entering (upon your duties) with a fair wind, and keeping the Treasury on the Colorado Secretary's Office, and standing on the point of your course, but the weather being so (which is not unlikely) from that direction, stand off as on, but if it increase to a full gale right in your teeth, haul all aboard, and stand by the weather.

Having got out of the difficulty, fill on again, and keep looking about, sailing close to the wind, just as it may blow, feeling your way well, and taking care to hug close to the shore, and to the point of the land, and to the rocks, to steer clear of Waykes Spit, as there the tide runs strong against Speak-out Bluff, where three All craft boats, which became total wrecks, were going on a wrong track and against the tide, and not taking in sail time-and in consequence of the sea, which (Sea Weather) being too high-caused them to be swamped. Stand by the weather, and keep the Treasury on the point (Point), and running well into Cowper's Beach, take a good berth, and let go your anchor.

When a Minister finds that honest men,
Themselves nor others will betray,
What secret art can avail him then,
To put those honest men away?

The only art his rage to cover,
To hide the same, and save his back,
And free opinion soundly smother,
Is _____ to sack.

—PUNCH.

SMITH O'BRIEN AND COLONEL EUGENE O'REILLY.
—A Dublin journal suggests that the Government should interpose on behalf of Mr. Smith O'Brien, now confiscating his estates for the overt acts of 1848, and then presenting them to him free from all encumbrances arising out of trustee deeds or proceedings in Chancery. This might be overcoming a difficulty with good, and heaping coals of fire on Mr. Smith O'Brien's head for his political misdeeds.

manifestations of gratitude for past favours which has given since the rumour of war with America Colonel Eugene O'Reilly, one of his companions in arms in 1848, now an officer in the Turkish service, has written a letter to him, in which he says:— "I tell you plainly then that you should not have written that letter to Mr. Seward, in the first instance, but that you should have given your life, your liberty, and the possession of your country to the cause of the emancipation of the negro, and the clemency of the Government against which you now are in arms, to the people; and, secondly, because, with the experience you have had of the nature of the stuff of which the revolutionary element in Ireland is made, you should have been more guarded in your expressions."

have avoided writing anything which might have the effect of inducing even one young man to turn away from his profession or his trade, and give his time to political conspiracy, which, you must know we regard as a traitorous and a very unbecoming movement even in Ireland, and a thoroughly rebellious. Therefore, the publishing of the letter to Mr. Seward, you committed a crime, because you uselessly induced young men, of a certain class, to expose themselves to danger, and become involved in difficulties which will affect all their lives. I cannot see what good you expected to do by publishing the letter. If the difficulties which are about to come upon Seward are not the result of your action, I hension for the conduct of her dominion in Ireland, then that was quite unnecessary to call people's attention to them. But the difficulties are not of that magnitude, your letter has only have contributed to turn some young men from tradesmen into conspirators, to ruin them, and to do so by inflicting an injury on Ireland by disturbing its tranquillity and lowering the character of the nation in the eyes of the world." He thus indignantly rebukes the insult to the Irish soldiers by the British army conveyed in the assurance that they would desert the American cause, and adds:—"I will not here enter into a discussion of many dangers which you foresee for England if she goes to war, but there is one about your right to speak of which I protest against. Why do you assert that one half of the army which may be sent to Canada will desert? Because that half will be Irish of course! Can you, an Irish gentleman, rejoice in the prospect of seeing your countrymen deserting their flag? How can you assert that our countrymen are perjurers and traitors to break the oath which they took when they entered the ranks? What gives you a right to speak thus of the Irish soldier, and to endeavor to cast a stain upon our military honour, and remove prestige, as the only merit which the nation still possesses in the eyes of Europe: And, moreover, to those who are ignorant of the subject, it is a relief to hear that now, I am not so, I have served in the army of the British army, and I can tell you how Irish soldiers feel. While they serve their corps in their country, it is their family; and its honour, its fortune, its wealth, and its woe, are their own. They have proved this on hundreds of fields of battle, and will yet prove again, I repeat, please God.—Times' Dublin Correspondent, June 20

MIGRATION OF KELLS.—A close observer assures me the following interesting evolutions occur when we come in from the sea:—The narrowest— ascend the inland streams, move up the shore of the river in the form of a long, dark, rope-like body, and shape not unlike an enormous specimen of the animal known as the "eelworm." On reaching the first tributary, the "eelworm" divides into a number of eels adequate to the number of streams, and each eel itself from the main body and the shore, this system of "eelworms" being repeated, on reaching the mouth of each tributary, until the entire number has been suitably proportioned with rivulets to river. Such being the case, wonderful instinct by which nature ordains that each eel

“I am thus provided with a competent number of this most useful creature.”—A Slice of Salmon; a Macmillan Magazine.

ENEMIES.—Go straight on, and don't mind them if they get in your way, round them, regardless of their spite. A man who has no enemies is seldom good for anything: he is made of that kind of material which is so easily worked that everyone has a hand in it. A sterling character is one who thinks for himself, and speaks what he thinks: he is always sure to have enemies. They are as necessary to him as air. They keep him alive and active. A celebrated character is one who is surrounded by enemies. Used to remark, “They are my friends.”

not blow, will go out by themselves." "Live down prejudice," was the Iron Duke's motto. Let this be your feeling while endeavoring to live down the scandal of these who are bitter against you. If you stop to dispute, you do but as they desire, and open the way for more abuse. Let the poor fellow take his own course. There will be a reaction if you perform but your duty and hundreds who were once alienated from your flock to you and whose cold Parliament was opened by commission on the 6th of February.

The Speech from the Throne referred to the irreparable loss the nation had sustained by the death of the Prince Consort. It also announced peace with Europe, and the settlement of the American disputes—the operations against Mexico—the convention with Morocco—warmly applauded the loyalty of the Canadians, and promised some few law reforms.

The Opposition in both Houses expressed their approval of the conduct of the Government in the American difficulty.

OBITUARY.

Sir J. T. Platt, Mr. Hansbrick, Admiral Dick, Mr. Lang, Martinez de la Rosa, Rev. H. Horn, and the Provost of Eton.

AMERICA.

CAPTURE OF RENWICK ISLAND, AND DESTRUCTION OF THE CONFEDERATE FLEET.

General Burnside's expedition has captured Renwick Island, destroyed the Federal fleet, and occupied Elizabeth city, after a severe fight, with the loss of 1000 men on each side. The Federal troops in Tennessee have been repulsed and captured Fort Henry; seized the bridge across the river, and cut off the main communication between Memphis and Columbus.

Fort Donaldson is about to be attacked, and it is rumoured that the Confederates have evacuated Bowling Green.

Great consternation prevailed in consequence, these positions being considered very serious. The House of Representatives has passed a bill making States' notes a legal tender, and the Senate a bill for the issue of demand notes for ten million dollars.

The Tax Bill is nearly completed. Most of the articles of general consumption are to be moderately taxed.

The Federal forces are being concentrated in Missouri for combined operations against General Price. The American Government declares the closing of Charleston Harbour to be only temporary.

The armies on the Potomac still motionless. General Beauregard has been appointed Commander of the Confederate army in Kentucky.

A telegram from Madrid dated 25th February states that the captain of the Sumpter has been arrested at Tangiers, at the instance of the American Consul at Gibraltar, and the Commander of the Tuscarora, who went for that purpose to Tangiers.

The New York Times considers the admission of the Sumpter at Gibraltar as a gross wrong to America, and says the rights of the Sumpter under the protection of neutrality were violated by the burning of the vessels she attacked. The actual expenditure of the Federal States upon their land and sea forces is at the rate of one hundred and sixty-two millions sterling a year, and it is calculated that the two sections of the Union must be spending between them nearly one million sterling a day.

The Southern journals now take a gloomy view of the Confederate cause, and inveigh bitterly against the despotism of Mr. Davis.

FRANCE.

The debate on the Address in reply to the Emperor's Speech has led to a scene of great violence between the Legitimists and Liberals.

Prince Napoleon attacked the Papacy, in terms openly declaring against the temporal power of the Pope, and demanding that National Education in France shall be taken out of the hands of the priests, and claimed for France the freedom of the Press. The Emperor has read the Episcopate a severe lesson.

The Papal Government has summoned the Bishops of all countries to a convention in Rome next May, but the French Bishops are prohibited from attending by command of the French Government.

The Pope is suffering from disease of the heart, and is not expected to live more than a few days, if so long.

Mr. Slidell had an interview with the Emperor of France.

Great sensation has been caused in Paris by a letter from the Emperor to General Monteban, passing a censure on the Corps Legislatif for its opposition to the Dotation Bill for the general services in China.

INSURRECTION IN GREECE.

A military insurrection has taken place in Greece, and the town and fortress of Panfilia are in possession of the insurgents. The Chambers and the country have expressed their devotion to the dynasty.

The question of Federal reforms and national German unity is about to be discussed in the Prussian Chamber of Deputies.

Austria is unequal to the task single-handed of keeping Venetia and Hungary, and seeks to raise up a confederacy in Germany, so constructed as to connect its members to the defence of her foreign provinces, against which scheme Russia protests. The consequences of this disagreement may be, that Germany will be divided into two Confederations; which will involve momentous consequences to the rest of Europe.

The Austrian fleet being greatly increased. The recognition of the kingdom of Italy by Prussia is said to have been decided.

RUSSIA.

The new Archbishop of Warsaw has urged the people to be quiet, and re-opened the churches; but military repression is still carried out with the greatest severity.

PORTUGAL.

The Portuguese Ministry have resigned, and a new Cabinet formed under the presidency of the Marquis of Soule.

MEXICO.

The Allied forces in Mexico have advanced beyond Vera Cruz without opposition, and submitted their demand to the Mexican authorities. It is rumoured that the throne of Mexico will be offered to an Archduke of the house of Austria, in exchange for Venetia. This project (Napoleon's) has been much discussed.

ITALY.

The Italians are menaced with a new difficulty. A party around the King is strongly urging him to suspend Parliamentary Government and issue a dictatorship.

The Bourbonists are organising a new invasion of the Neapolitan provinces. The King is true to his motto "Freedom and Unity."

MONEY AND COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Great demand has lately existed for all foreign and colonial securities.

Colonial Government debentures firm and rising.

Victorian 6 per cents. are quoted 107½ to 108, the new issues 104 to 105.

New South Wales 5 per cent. 1866, 99 to 100.

Latest price of Consols, 93½ to 94.

Cash bank rate of discount, 2½ per cent; money abundant.

The chief event in monetary circles has been an attempt of the French Government to borrow four millions sterling in London market, in order to force through the conversion of the four and a half per cent. rentes into three per cent.

This loan could not be carried out owing to the inability of the French contractors to supply the French securities.

The Board of Trade returns for 1861 have been published, and are considered satisfactory, notwithstanding the cotton difficulty, and the prohibitory tariff of the United States.

Exports to Melbourne, during January, £299,468, against £431,689 in December; decrease £132,221.

Millinery, piece goods, apparel, haberdashery, and blankets, considerably reduced.

Wrought leather, slightly; galvanized iron, none. Bacon, cheese and oils of every description, moderate.

Flint glass and earthenware, very abundant. Butter, only 110 flasks.

Hops, rather heavy. Wines, very moderate. Spirits and beer, average quantities. Shipments since the 7th, £113,000.

Exports to Sydney during the month rather less than previous one, with the exception of spirits, which are heavy.

WOOL REPORT FOR FEBRUARY.

Markets inactive. Few enquiries, and those mostly for wool at last sale rates, which dealers will not accept. Next sales commence on 28th February. Stock on hand—total, 45,312 bales.

It is anticipated that a decline of one penny per pound will occur next sale owing to unsatisfactory accounts from the Continent, and general slackness of trade.

Arrivals for March sales are expected to be very large.
